Practice Exercise: Power on the Space Station This is your chance to build an electrical system for a space station. You may install up to five Photovoltaic (PV) modules to generate power, but remember they are very expensive and may block your view from the space stations portholes. The items you select for your electrical system are described below. You may add as many electrical items to your stat...

RE-HOMING YOUR OWN DOG\(S\)

We have a saying here that re-homing a dog is easy, re-homing a dog WELL is very difficult There is a common misconception when it comes to finding a good home or a rescue space for your dog(s) that, if and when the time comes, it will be quick and easy. Unfortunately due to the overwhelming amount of dogs currently in circulation in this country, this only applies to the very few. For the majority, t...
